

Choose a card game expression that you feel best suits the situation in terms of meaning.

#	Sentence	Expression
1	Sometimes you have to accept the way things are, and your friends too.	Make the best of the hand you're dealt
2	I'm never sure what John is going to do at parties when drunk!
3	John sat his coat on the chair before proceeding to take the rest of his clothes off too!
4	Later, he went to the door where all the shoes were and lined them up—smallest to largest.
5	We asked him if he'd like a coffee to sober up a bit, but he said no.
6	In the conga line that a couple of people were doing, he jumped in front and joined them, without them asking him to.
7	I must admit that his dancing was superior to anyone else's though!
8	Being a car salesman by day, he talked to everyone he could, trying to have them agree to receive options and contracts.
9	He wanted everyone to get on the tables and sing karaoke with him, but no one did.
10	In order to overcome his displeasure, he went outside to have a smoke.
11	His behaviour certainly was the most memorable thing at that party!

The Card Game of Life

